

5th World Congress of IFHNOS & Annual Meeting of the AHNS

AMERICAN HEAD AND NECK SOCIETY

IFHNOS is a global organization consisting of national and regional societies and organizations focused on head and neck surgery and oncology. IFHNOS members represent more than 65 countries.

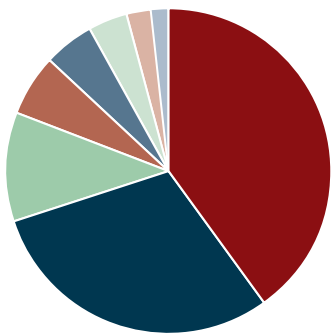

AHNS is the single largest organization in North America for the advancement of research and education in head and neck surgery.

A Century of Progress in Head and Neck Cancer

2014 will mark 100 years since the first Head and Neck Cancer Surgery Service in the world was established at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York City. To celebrate this momentous occasion, the International Federation of Head and Neck Oncologic Societies (IFHNOS) will hold its 5th World Congress in New York from July 26-30, 2014. The American Head and Neck Society (AHNS) will organize and hold its Annual Meeting jointly with the World Congress. This high-profile educational event will be the largest Head and Neck Cancer Congress in history. Key opinion leaders from around the globe will convene to present their work and celebrate a Century of Progress in Head and Neck Cancer.
